4:00 p.m.

Paying For Your Education
Johnson Center, Cinema

Getting Ahead of the Distress Curve: Identifying and Overcoming Common College Pitfalls
Johnson Center, Room D

Attending college is usually one of the first major life transitions for many young adults, which can be met with a mixture of excitement and nervousness. Counseling and Psychological Services and Student Support and Case Management will address some of the most common challenges students face in the transition as well as strategies and resources to help students persist.

4:30 p.m.

Campus Tour
Johnson Center, Dewberry Lobby

Enjoy a small, personalized tour that will guide you to the locations where you need to take care of business or find locations for future reference.

Getting Involved at Mason
Johnson Center, George's Restaurant

There are a number of ways to become involved in campus life. Get connected with Student Involvement and find opportunities for you to create your experience and leave your mark at Mason.

Teacher Education
Johnson Center, Room B

Interested in pursuing a career in education? Learn more about the coursework and requirements to become a teacher.

Exploring and Preparing for Your Career
Johnson Center, Bistro

Wondering what to major in or what to do with your intended major? Whether you need to know how to find a career path to fit your skills and interests or are ready to find a job or internship, Career Services has the programs and resources available to assist you in developing your career plan.

Leadership Development and Service Opportunities
Johnson Center, Room E

Mason believes that EVERY student has the potential to be a leader. Learn about the many programs and activities that are available to students who wish to serve and to further their leadership.

Study Abroad
Johnson Center, Room C

Learn about the opportunities that await you at the Center for Global Education. Studying abroad makes you connected, experienced, and confident. Can you afford not to study abroad?

Next Steps After Orientation
Johnson Center, Cinema

Learn about important resources and action items to complete following Orientation including parking on campus, purchasing books, immunization records, meal plans, etc.