What Important Things Should I Know?

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their education records.

- When a student turns 18, or attends a postsecondary institution, FERPA rights belong to the student, not the parent.
- Mason does not release non-directory information unless a student has provided consent, the release is to the parent of a dependent student.
